I (must) Do...

With so much to think about and so many choices, where do you start?

Our wedding specialists from Cockermouth Travel have developed this useful plan to remind you of all the important details. So have fun creating your own "To Do" list.

At Cockermouth Travel we know just how important your wedding day is and we are here to make sure that everything goes to plan. Our travel experts not only have the knowledge in arranging weddings overseas, they also have a genuine passion for making each wedding perfect. We will do everything from finding the perfect place, arranging all of the travel including any guest requirements, to organising those little extras that will make such a big difference.

If you already have your wedding planned and are looking for help with your honeymoon one of our travel experts will organise everything from start to finish. Our team have many years of experience in planning honeymoons and will be delighted to advise the best destinations to suit all budgets. We've got the widest choice, from total relaxation on a tropical beach to destinations with lots to see and do. We really have got something for everyone.

Why not set up a wedding or Honeymoon account ,instead of 3 toasters and a kettle on your wedding list ,ask family and friends to help out - many couples send out a poem (an example of which is shown below) ,this a great way to encourage guests to contribute your overseas wedding or honeymoon.

*Alas! Friends and family, in sin we've been living,
And if you're not yet sure what you plan on giving,
We have dozens of towels and a toaster or two,
Plenty of cutlery and glassware too.
Some memories to last for ever,
Is what these newlyweds will truly treasure.
We dream of visiting faraway lands,
So come to you all, begging bowl in hand!
The gift we require needs no wrapping or tags,
But we hope it will help us to pack our bags,
And fly away on our first trip together,
A fabulous time to remember forever.*
